SENATOR BLAND IN FRONT

Led From Start to Finish in the Mile Handicap.

SALMERA WINS THE STAKE

Colonel T. and I Don't Know Both Surprise the Talent-Alahabad a Veritable Mud Lark.

Friday night the prospects were very bright for a record breaking day at the race track yesterday, but the early morning rain made the track a sea of mud. The weather was threatening during the afternoon, still there was a first-class attendance, while thousands of dollars were wagered on the result of every race.

The chestnut horse, Senator Bland, had his revenge on Ostler Joe for his defeat in the Copper City handicap, and clearly demonstrated that he is a better horse than Ostler Joe, but not a 12-pound better horse. It would not have been surprising if Senator Bland had suffered defeat yesterday, for he has hardly been termed a mud lark. His loss carried him to victory yesterday.

The 2-year-old stake resulted in an easy win for Salmiera, which was contrary to the expectation of the betting public, at any rate. Before the young colts had gone an eighth of a mile it was apparent that neither of the Bitter Root youngsters was at home on the slushy going, while Salmiera fairly revelled in such a track.

Promptly at 2 o'clock the four starters for the $25,000 were ordered out. Fantasia was selected to capture the 50 per cent. end of the purse. She sold for $25, Sola for $14, and the field for $25. Fantasia captured the first two heats, but Sola in the third closed up a gap of 10 or 12 lengths and beat Ostler Joe. The fourth heat was one of the closest seen in many a long day. Fantasia opened up the usual gap of seven or eight lengths, but Sola gained very fast through the stretch and both trotters went past the judges' stand nose and nose. There was some little delay in announcing the result as Von Bokkelen protested about being sent off a couple of lengths behind Fantasia, which virtually lost him the race. The judges awarded the heat and race to Fantasia.

Salmiera, the racing daughter of Salvator, Tammany Hall II., the smashing son of that great race horse Tammany, and the imported colt Missioner, were the only two to sport colors in the Deer Lodge stake. The Daily entry sold for $25, while Salmiera brought $11. The trio were sent away on even terms, and the youngsters raced together for a couple of lengths. Salmiera drew away and assuming a commanding lead won easily. Tammany Hall II. bolted across the track in the stretch and apparently could not do himself justice on a slushy track such as was present yesterday. Salmiera is a full sister to Salvation, and is in rare fettle just at present.

The three starters in the mile handicap were Senator Bland 115 pounds, Ostler Joe 110, and Daylight 85 pounds. In the pools Senator Bland sold for $25, while the field realized $20. After one break, Starter Ferguson lowered his flag to only a fair start, both Senator Bland and Daylight getting off a length in advance of Ostler Joe. There was a hot rush to the first turn, but Senator Bland at once went to the head of affairs with Daylight and Ostler Joe next in order. A pretty race ensued along the back stretch, but Senator Bland maintained his lead. Daylight passed Ostler Joe on the far turn, and set sail for Senator Bland. Lame was compelled to ride the favorite, who responded gamely and won cleverly from Daylight, while Ostler Joe was beaten off some three lengths.

The five furlongs handicap was looked upon as a moral for May W., but the rank outsider I Don't Know proved the winner. Paget is entitled to the credit of the win. He lost two or three lengths by turning wide in the stretch, but the better going enabled him to handily beat out May W. The victory was a popular one, judging by the applause from the occupants of the judges' stand.

The seven furlongs dash had nine starters. Allahabad, who is noted for his mud proclivities, sold favorite at $50, while Encino and Clan Campbell were second and third choices at $25 and $16 respectively, while the others brought almost nothing. Allahabad proved an easy winner, while Veloz secured the place from Latah. Allahabad got off in the lead and stayed in front.

The sixth race at five and one-half furlongs, proved a surprise party. Sable sold favorite, Jim Blackburn and Hymn being strong second choices, but the Washington contingent sprung a good thing in Colonel T., who won much as he pleased from Sable. Jim Blackburn was a fair third. The winner sold for $15 in pools of $150.

Cherry Leaf looked the best in the last race at five and one-half furlongs, and, although a legitimate money choice, over three to one could be obtained in the pooling. Cherry Leaf sold for $25, Tammany $20, Chinook $11, Doubtful $16, Red Bird $17, and field $11. Cherry Leaf won off by himself, while General Coxy was an easy second. ## SUMMARY JUSTICE.

Cases Heard at Judge Donoghue's Court Yesterday Morning.

The record for summary justice was broken yesterday morning in Judge Donoghue's court. An arrest for larceny was made, the witnesses were secured and the prisoner was tried and sentenced within three-quarters of an hour from the commission of the offense.

As Constable J. J. Walsh was passing the city hall saloon yesterday morning he discovered a man named W. H. Woods, who had been engaged to wash the windows of the saloon, in the act of stealing four bottles of Pommery Sec and one bottle of Irish whiskey. The constable placed Woods under arrest, and asking a witness from the saloon to identify him, he marched the prisoner around to Judge Donoghue's court. The judge was present and the trial was held at once. Attorney Goodman was found and he prosecuted the case. Woods was found guilty and sentenced to a term of 90 days in the county jail.

Ed Carter, a vag who was arrested by Constable Walsh, was sentenced to 30 days.
The case of Nancy Hanks and Frisco Nell, which has been dragging along for some time, was further continued to Monday at 9 a. m. in order to give the prisoners time to procure counsel and arrange a defense.

Times Have Changed

Fifty years ago in New England shoes were all made by hand. When a man wanted a pair of shoes, either for himself or any member of his family, he had a "cobbler" come to his house and make the shoes; so it often happened that a cobbler would stay at one house two or three weeks while he made shoes for the whole family. But to-day there is probably not one man in five hundred who has his shoes made to order in any section of the country. The same change is coming about in clothing. Many people realize that they can get just as good a fit in the O. R. & A. store, in their "ready-to-wear" garments, as they can by going to a tailor and being measured, and at the same time save 50 per cent. Why is this?

The reason is found in the fact that our buyer has spent fifteen years of the best portion of his life studying the fabrics and the patterns of the best manufacturers in the country. All of the clothing on our tables is selected from the best materials, CUT FROM PATTERNS FROM LIVING MODELS, and made by skilled workmen. These points enable us to guarantee a fit and have gained for our clothing a reputation that we prize more highly than money. We do not propose to abuse this confidence, but we DO PROPOSE to retain it by giving 100 PER CENT VALUE for every dollar's purchase at our store.

While Mr. Adams is East selecting our Fall and Winter Goods we shall make SPECIAL BARGAINS. Come and see them this week.

There's a Good Deal of Bogus About Clearing Sales...

Did you ever go to buy from a large stock "that must be cleared out" and find the last "just sold"? This is one by unscrupulous merchants who trust to the credulity of the public for their success. This is a frail foundation upon which to establish a healthy, permanent business, and the intelligent public soon learn their methods, not even interesting themselves enough to investigate after the first two or three disappointments. We often see these alleged bargains—customers show them to us—and, nine times out of ten, if the goods are standard, our prices are at least as low as the year through. If they are not first quality but simply trash, there's no chance for comparison, for such merchandise is never seen in our store.

A bargain ought to be something out of the ordinary. We never use the term in any other sense.
